

Day 1: 30th Oct 08

Venue: International Conference Centre, NUS

Date	Time	Program
	0830-0900	Registration & Breakfast
	0900-0945	Opening Address by Guest of Honor -- TBD
	1015-1045	Opening Keynote: -- Mr Dipal Barua (Managing Director of Grameen Shakti)
	1100-1200	Keynote Panel: Lessons from other Countries -- Explore how Asia Pacific countries can learn from the success and failures of other regions in adopting clean energy.
	1200-1400	Lunch
	1400-1500	Future of Solar in Asia Pacific -- What difficulties and challenges that lie ahead for mass adoption of Solar Energy in Asia Pac?	Opportunities in the carbon market -- Examine how the CDM mechanism, as part of the Kyoto Protocol works, and the opportunities in this multi-billion market.
	1515-1530	Student Presentations	Student Presentations
	1530-1600	Afternoon Tea
	1600-1700	Clean Energy: A disruptive technology? -- What impact will clean energy have on the operations of traditional oil and gas	The Greening of Corporates -- How can being environmentally friendly improve the bottomline of companies?

Date	Time	Program
Day 2: 31th Oct 08 Venue: International Conference Centre, NUS	0830-0900	Registration & Breakfast
	0900-1030	Keynote Panel: What can Clean Energy bring to developing nations -- What can clean energy bring to the 1.6 billion people worldwide with no access to electricity, and how can we work towards that?
	1030-1045	Introduction to Energy Crossroads
	1100-1200	The future of Biofuels -- Examine the controversy and debate over the biofuel industry, and the challenges of adopting it as a alternate fuel in Asia	Whats there other than solar, wind, biofuel? -- What are the opportunities in the less well known forms of renewables, and where do these opportunities exist?
	1200-1400	Lunch
	1400-1500	Green Buildings and Energy Efficiency -- Examine how energy efficient buildings can help in energy sustainability	Green Transportation -- Will vehicles powered by alternate fuels (e.g electricity/ hydrogen) co-exist with traditional gas/diesel vehicles in the future, or will one system displace another?
	1500-1530	Afternoon Tea
	1530-	Keynote Panel: Opportunities in Singapore
Job Fair/ Exhibition			